Here is a sample of what Milius has to say in the book:

"I was raised to believe that the world is a violent place, and that the only way to survive is to be strong and ruthless. I learned that at an early age, and it has shaped my entire life."

"I'm not a pacifist. I believe in violence. But I also believe that violence should be used only as a last resort. It should never be used for its own sake."

"The film industry is a business, and like any other business, it is driven by money. But I believe that there is still room for art in the film industry. I believe that filmmakers can make films that are both entertaining and thought-provoking."

"I'm not afraid to speak my mind. I don't care what other people think of me. I'm just going to say what I believe, and if people don't like it, that's their problem.""
