At the heart of this poignant tale is Vivi Jones, a young woman grappling with grief and the aftermath of a traumatic accident that has left her physically and emotionally scarred. When she meets Eli, a charming and enigmatic stranger, she finds herself drawn to his magnetic energy and the promise of a new beginning.

However, Vivi's past is not so easily forgotten. She struggles with guilt, isolation, and the fear that she is not worthy of love. As she navigates these emotions, she must confront her own demons and decide whether she can give herself a chance at happiness with Eli by her side.

Emery Lord weaves a masterful tale that delves into the complexities of human connection, the power of love to heal, and the importance of self-acceptance. With its relatable characters, heart-wrenching moments, and themes that resonate on a universal level, "When We Collided" is a must-read for fans of contemporary romance and anyone seeking a poignant and unforgettable story.
