Roosevelt married Franklin Delano Roosevelt in 1905. The couple had six children together. Roosevelt was a devoted wife and mother, but she also pursued her own interests. She was a social activist and a diplomat. She worked to improve the lives of women, children, and the poor. She also served as a delegate to the United Nations.

Roosevelt was a complex and fascinating woman. She was a strong advocate for social justice, but she was also a private person who struggled with depression and loneliness.
