But despite his material success, Anstice felt a void in his life. He was unfulfilled by his work and longed for something more meaningful.

One day, Anstice came across a documentary about the Bushmen of the Kalahari Desert. He was fascinated by their simple life, their close connection to nature, and their sense of community.

Inspired by what he saw, Anstice decided to sell all his possessions and move to the Kalahari to live among the Bushmen.

At first, life with the Bushmen was a challenge for Anstice. He had to learn to live off the land, hunt for food, and build his own shelter. But over time, he came to appreciate the beauty and simplicity of his new life.

Anstice lived with the Bushmen for several years, and during that time he learned a great deal about their culture and way of life. He came to admire their resilience, their wisdom, and their deep respect for the environment.
