A Story of Family, Traditions, and Love

Step into the warm and welcoming world of Nonna Hanukkah Surprise, a delightful children's book by Karen Fisman. This heartwarming tale captures the essence of the holiday season, reminding us of the cherished bonds of family, the joy of celebrating traditions, and the enduring power of love.

The story follows the adventures of Nonna, a beloved grandmother, as she prepares for the upcoming Hanukkah celebration. With her grandchildren eagerly awaiting her arrival, Nonna sets out on a magical journey to create the perfect holiday surprise.

A Journey Filled with Culinary Delights and Festive Traditions

Join Nonna on her festive quest as she gathers the finest ingredients for her legendary latkes and sufganiyot. Experience the sights, sounds, and aromas of a bustling marketplace as she selects the choicest potatoes and apples.

Through the eyes of Nonna's grandchildren, learn about the cherished traditions of Hanukkah. Witness the flickering flames of the menorah, listen to the enchanting melodies of holiday songs, and uncover the meaning behind the Dreidel game.

The Heartwarming Surprise that Unites the Family

As Nonna's surprise takes shape, the children's excitement grows with each passing moment. The air fills with anticipation as they eagerly await the unveiling of her festive creation.

In a heartwarming climax, Nonna's grandchildren finally witness the fruits of her labor. With a beaming smile, she reveals her masterpiece: a magnificent Hanukkah cake, adorned with sparkling candles and festive decorations.

As the family gathers around the cake, the true meaning of the holiday shines through. They share laughter, stories, and the unwavering bond that unites them. The Hanukkah celebration becomes a symbol of love, warmth, and the enduring traditions that connect generations.
