Lou Nanne is a man who knows what it takes to win. As a professional basketball player, he helped the Phoenix Suns reach the NBA Finals. As a coach, he led the Cleveland Cavaliers to their first playoff berth in over a decade. And as an executive, he helped build the San Antonio Spurs into one of the most successful teams in the league.

In his new book, Passion to Win, Nanne shares his insights on leadership, teamwork, and the importance of never giving up. Drawing from his own experiences, he shows how anyone can achieve success in business and in life by following his simple principles.

One of the most important things Nanne emphasizes is the importance of passion. He believes that if you're not passionate about what you're doing, you'll never be able to achieve your full potential. "When you have passion, you're willing to put in the extra work," he says. "You're willing to go the extra mile. And that's what it takes to win."

Nanne also believes that teamwork is essential for success. "No one can do it alone," he says. "You need to have a team of people around you who are willing to work together and support each other." Nanne's own teams have always been known for their camaraderie and teamwork, and he believes that this is one of the reasons for their success.

Finally, Nanne stresses the importance of never giving up. "There will be times when things get tough," he says. "But you can't give up. You have to keep fighting. And if you never give up, you will eventually achieve your goals."

Passion to Win is a must-read for anyone who wants to achieve success in business and in life. Nanne's insights are invaluable, and his stories are both inspiring and entertaining. This book will help you overcome challenges, reach your goals, and achieve your dreams.
