Caught or Taught: A Revolutionary Approach

At the heart of 'Spelling Caught Or Taught New Look' lies the revolutionary 'Caught or Taught' methodology, an evidence-based approach that simplifies the complexities of spelling. This innovative method categorizes words into two distinct groups:

- Caught words: These are words that are best learned through visual memory and repetition. They often have irregular spellings, making them less predictable based solely on phonics rules.
- Taught words: These are words that can be mastered by understanding and applying spelling rules. They typically follow consistent patterns and can be decoded using phonics.

By distinguishing between these two categories, 'Spelling Caught Or Taught New Look' empowers learners to tailor their study strategies, focusing on the most effective approach for each word.
