

The Epic Story Of The Fastest Ride In History Through The Heart Of The Grand

By John Blaustein

In the heart of the Grand Canyon, a group of daredevils embarked on an epic journey—a race against time and nature. Their goal: to be the first to ride the entire length of the Colorado River through the canyon, from Lee's Ferry to Diamond Creek.

The journey was filled with danger and uncertainty. The rapids were treacherous, the cliffs were sheer, and the heat was oppressive. But the riders persevered, and their story is one of courage, determination, and the power of the human spirit.
